Offers In The Region Of £350,000

Offered chain free, this two bedroom semi detached bungalow is located in this popular road only a short stroll to the centre of the village. The lounge benefits from parquet flooring and triple glazed front windows with fitted shutters, with the front bedroom also offering triple glazed window with shutters. The 2nd bedroom to the rear houses the modern gas fired combination boiler, with the fully tiled bathroom beside. The kitchen/breakfast room, with its range of wall and base units, integrated washing machine, dishwasher and fitted range cooker leads to the conservatory beyond, with doors from here onto the garden. Outside, there is a block paved drive providing ample parking, leading to the detached double length garage with up and over door and a gate beside leading to the rear garden, with paved patio, lawn and mature shrub beds to the side and rear.

The popular village of Marden offers a range of independent shops, pubs and cafes, post office and petrol station with convenience store as well as a mainline station offering regular services into London Charing Cross. The County Town of Maidstone is within easy reach, with its greater range of shopping, leisure and transport facilities.
