This exceptional family home, arranged across four thoughtfully designed floors, offers over 1700 sq ft of stylish and versatile living space with breathtaking direct views over the River Medway. Situated in the highly sought-after village of Aylesford, this property combines riverside tranquility with modern living at its finest. The current owners have cleverly reconfigured the layout to create a bright and spacious environment that truly feels like home. On the second floor, you'll find two spacious double bedrooms and a contemporary family bathroom. Finally, the top floor is reserved for a luxurious master suite that rivals a high-end hotel. With built-in wardrobes and a private en-suite, this expansive room offers both comfort and privacy, creating a true sanctuary at the top of the home. Additional features include a private driveway and excellent energy efficiency throughout.
