Beautifully Converted Single Roundel Oast in a Secluded Countryside Setting

Nestled in a tranquil, tucked-away position on the edge of open countryside, New Barns Oast offers a rare opportunity to acquire a beautifully converted and refurbished single roundel oast, blending timeless character with modern living.

Set within a small, exclusive development just under a mile from the vibrant West Malling High Street and mainline train station, this charming home combines rural peace with excellent connectivity.

The accommodation is arranged over three floors and retains the distinctive circular oast architecture, complemented by a high-quality, contemporary interior finish. The property has been improved and refurbished by the present owners with a newly converted third floor bedroom and an accompanying en-suite and dressing room, all presented in excellent decorative order.

Outside, the home enjoys a secluded garden backing directly onto local countryside – perfect for those who value privacy and nature. A garage and additional parking are also included, ensuring convenience for day-to-day living and commuting.

Ideal for professionals or those seeking a unique rural retreat with access to town amenities, this exceptional home must be seen to be fully appreciated.
