GUIDE PRICE: £325,000-£335,000
EPC RATING: D

Tucked away in a quiet cul-de-sac, this well-presented two-bedroom home occupies a desirable corner plot and benefits from private driveway parking for two vehicles to the front. You enter the property via a welcoming entrance porch, which leads through to the main living accommodation. The ground floor features a bright and spacious living/dining room, offering plenty of space for both relaxing and entertaining. Adjacent is a modern, contemporary kitchen, thoughtfully designed with generous storage, an integral dishwasher, washing machine and a breakfast bar area. Upstairs, the first floor offers two generous double bedrooms, both well-proportioned and filled with natural light, alongside a stylish family bathroom. Externally, the property continues to impress. The west-facing rear garden is a fantastic size for a home of this type and enjoys plenty of afternoon and evening sunshine. A raised decking area with pergola provides a wonderful space for outdoor dining and entertaining during the summer months, while the remainder of the garden offers flexibility for seating, planting, or play. Situated in the popular town of Snodland, the property is conveniently placed for local amenities, countryside walks, and excellent transport links. Snodland train station offers regular services into London, making this ideal for commuters, while road links provide easy access to nearby towns and motorway networks. An excellent opportunity for first-time buyers, downsizers, or investors alike—early viewing is highly recommended.
