33-35 South Street, Maidstone, ME16 9EX

Asking Price £750,000
EPC RATING: D

Occupying a prime position on the highly regarded South Street in Barming, this beautifully presented three-bedroom detached Victorian home, originally built as a pair of semi-detached properties, combines timeless period elegance with thoughtfully considered modern finishes. Having been extensively renovated and enhanced by the current owners, no expense has been spared in achieving an exceptional standard of finish throughout, resulting in a home that effortlessly balances period character with contemporary luxury.

The accommodation is both generous and versatile, comprising three well-proportioned reception rooms that provide flexible spaces for relaxing, entertaining, or working from home. A striking double-sided log burner creates a wonderful focal point, bringing warmth and character to the principal living areas. The beautifully appointed kitchen flows seamlessly into a stunning oak-framed orangery measuring approximately 22' x 12', creating an impressive open-plan space flooded with natural light and perfectly designed for modern family living and entertaining. A stylish ground floor shower room further enhances the practicality of the home.

To the first floor are three spacious bedrooms, each enjoying an abundance of natural light while retaining the charm synonymous with Victorian architecture. The bathrooms have been finished to an exacting standard, providing elegant and relaxing spaces.

Externally, the property continues to impress with a beautifully maintained rear garden, offering a private setting for outdoor dining and family enjoyment. A charming summer house provides a versatile additional space, ideal as a home office, studio, or peaceful retreat.
