Located in this quiet semi rural village, yet only a short drive to Maidstone, is this this pretty, terraced two bedroom cottage. A small entrance lobby takes you into the lounge, with feature wood burning stove and brick surround which in turn leads you to the dining room beyond, which is open plan to the modern, quality fitted kitchen. A turning staircase from the lobby takes you to the two first floor bedrooms and the luxurious three piece family bathroom.

Outside, there is gravel parking in front of the property with pathway beside and to the rear, a small lean to addition from the kitchen takes you to the 69' southerly facing garden, with a paved patio taking you to the lawned gardens, with mature shrubs and hedging and offering extensive views over open countryside beyond.

The property also offers additional parking in front of the detached single garage, located a few yards away, with additional generous storage shed behind.

Hermitage Lane is in the popular village of Boughton Monchelsea, with stunning, scenic country walks, including the Greensand Way right on your doorstep with the County Town of Maidstone only a short drive away, with its wide range of leisure, shopping and transport facilities. Staplehurst is within easy reach by car, with regular mainline train services into London and large Sainsburys supermarket close by.
