25 THE CHANTRY, HEADCORN, TN27 9TF

Located in this quiet cul de sac, one of Headcorns' most popular developments and only a short walk from the centre of the village and railway station with direct links to London, is this rarely available detached family home. The spacious entrance hall leads to a guest cloakroom, generous lounge, kitchen/dining room and separate family room, while upstairs, the main bedroom offers built in wardrobes and a three piece en-suite shower room, with the further three bedrooms served by a four piece family bathroom.

With detached double garage beside and ample off street parking in front, there are mature shrub beds to the front and side and gated access to the to the south westerly facing rear gardens, which wrap around the house offering a large terraced area with mature planting and secluded lawned area.

The Chantry is a small, bespoke development located just off Grigg Lane, within close walking distance of the centre of the village, with its wide range of independent shops, cafes and pubs, Post Office, Sainsbury's Local and Costa Coffee as well as mainline train station with regular direct services into London. The village also offers a well regarded Primary School, playground and recreation ground by the village hall.
